Functional Skills and Initial Assessments using e-Assessment tools: FREE London seminar hosted by BTL

Shipley, United Kingdom, September 2009

BTL Group Ltd, a leading provider of e-Assessment solutions, will be hosting a FREE half-day seminar exploring Skills Assessments created using e-Assessment tools. The seminar will take place on 29th October 2009 in London, and will be focusing on Functional Skills and Initial Assessments.

BTL has extensive experience in developing and delivering Skills Assessments solutions for a wide range of sectors. BTL will be supported at this event by AlphaPlus Consultancy, which is highly experienced in working with organisations to develop e-Assessments and Skills Assessments.

This seminar is intended to help those involved, or getting started, in the creation of Functional Skills and Initial Assessments using an e-Assessment solution.

The event aims to address the following:

- Functional Skills Summative Assessment
- Adaptive Skills Assessment – in Initial Assessment tools
- Delivering Skills Assessment in different settings – technical integration, educational integration into learning and assessment programmes
- Functional Skills exemplars using BTL's e-Assessment solution, Surpass

Who should attend?

- Awarding Bodies
- Sector Skills Councils
- Central/Regional Government
- Educational Agencies

There will be plenty of opportunities to ask questions, and get answers from, the team and to network with other delegates.

Places at this seminar are limited. To register and view further information, please visit www.btl.com/events. Alternatively, telephone Hawa Mahmood on (01274) 203255.
